Opus Sanctorum Angelorum (Latin for the "Work of the Holy Angels") is a public association of the faithful under the direction of the Order of the Holy Cross. It has the special mission to promote the awareness of the powerful presence and help of the Holy Angels in our spiritual lives. It promotes a Church approved consecration to the Guardian Angel and to all the Holy Angels, after a formation period for each. The movement is particularly dedicated to the sanctification of the priesthood.
